SYNOPSIS

Andy is a 6-year old boy, and his toys (who have a life of their own) are afraid that their time has come, and that a new birthday toy will replace them in the heart of their owner. Woody, a cowboy, who has so far been Andy's favourite toy, tries to calm them down, until the appearance of Buzz Lightyear, a space hero with all types of technological gadgets. Woody is relegated to second place, but the constant rivalry between the cowboy and the spaceman finally turns into a firm friendship when both get lost in the city and need to find their way home.

FILM QUOTES

Who says things like this and when?

"It's not a laser, it's a little light that flashes on and off."

"He doesn't fight evil or fire lasers or fly."

"You're a Buzz Lightyear! You have wings, you glow in the dark."

"Why would Andy want to play with me if he has you?"

"Don't you go near Andy, he's mine!"

"Buzz, I can't do that without you, I need your help"
